

There is nothing wrong with satellite radio. It is no different than an american's right to cable or satellite tv. We as Xmers unite in the fight to keep government from messing with the programming we love day in and day out. I choose Xm. I love Xm. No one will stop me from enjoying the radio I love.